

Aim to Shoot

Information bulletin from Archery NI

January 2019

Achieve

Congratulations to River Oak archers Sami and Lynn who will shoot for GB at the World Transplant Games NewcastleGateshead 2019.

Patrick does a Robin Hood! At NICSSA club's annual Robin Hood Portsmouth shoot on 5th January Patrick Huston OLY shot his arrow cleanly into the centre of Kim's that was already in the centre of the gold, to win the £50 prize for the first Robin Hood.

Well done to nearly 50 NI archers listed in the 2018 Field Rankings, especially those placed first (4 archers), second (1) and third (4) in your bow style categories.

Nurture

Disability Committee - ANI invites expressions of interest from individuals to establish a committee tasked with developing and promoting disability archery in the region. The committee will be led by the Archery NI Chair.

Youth Forum - ANI recognises the need to effectively engage with Junior and Youth members so is seeking assistance from the membership to development a Youth Forum to give our young members a voice.

National Talent Development Program - the launch on 20th January offers training, introducing the New Technical Model.

The age limit of the program is those who are juniors in 2019 and is led by Andrew Partridge, Lloyd Brown, Damien Lennon and Hazel Campbell. Booking a place at the camp is via Sport80. For information contact Hazel at hazel.campbell@archeryni.org.uk

Closing date is Thursday 17 January at 4.00 pm

Involve

ANI Calendar Officer – vacancy is still open; is anybody able to take on responsibility for the Tournament Calendar?

Mary Peters Trust – Spin to a Million on Friday 1st February

ANI is participating in this fund raising event and needs sponsored members to keep a bike spinning for the afternoon. Anyone want to come for a ride?

Happy New Shooting Year

I hope you find Aim to Shoot useful and informative. If you have content for future issues, send it in to the ANI Admin.

Shoot well and enjoy the sport from Marc Scott, ANI Chairman

2019 ANI Championship Shoots

Clubs have been invited to tender to host these and tender form(s) should be completed and returned by Monday 21st January 2019.

The ANI Board maintains clear and open communication channels, so if you have any issues, send these to either the Secretary or directly to the Chairman. If you want more of a say in key decision making in your sport, there are still opportunities to join the Board or one of the new committees being established.
